Risk

The British Mountaineering Council recognises that climbing and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury or death. Participants in these activities should be aware of, and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement. I accept that persons leading walks, climbing or other activities are not qualified instructors.

As a matter of courtesy, if I am taking part in an activity led by a member of OUMS, I will either (i) carry out all directions of the leader, or (ii) inform them that I am leaving the group.

Confidentiality

I agree that details of my application may be kept on computer and may be passed on to other Open University Mountaineering Society committee members. It is our policy not to release your personal details to anyone else, including other members, without your express permission.
